EDWARD MOORE, Baby

June 17, 10

Admiral Boscawen presented a singular memorial from Mr. Howden, of the Sugar Works, when a discussion arose on its reception, in the course of which a motion for an adjournment till to-day was made but lost. Finally the memorial was received.

CORRESPONDENCE.
The Town Clerk read a letter from Mr. Walker, of the Australian Cloth Factory, relative to the amount of water required by him for his premises.

A letter on a similar subject from Messrs. Gilchrist and Alexander.

A letter from the City Treasurer enclosing abstract of quarterly receipts and disbursements.

A letter from Secretary of Gas Company, drawing attention to arrears due by Council for lighting.

A letter from J. Wilson, complaining of overcharges at George-street market, and irregularities occurring there.

FINANCE.
On the motion of Mr. Brown, seconded by Mr. Stubs, a resolution was passed, amounting to £207 10s, were directed to be paid.

HACKNEY CARRIAGES.
The 24th section of the Standing Orders having been suspended, Mr. Ryan moved the granting of Cab and Hackney Licenses to such parties as had applied for them.

Admiral Wilschke seconded the motion, which Mr. Hill supported.

Some general discussion followed, relative to the license which had been adopted by the Committee, which it was considered they were not authorized to adopt, in allowing a return of a part of the year's license fee, proportionate to the term of the year the license had to run, before it was to be paid.

It was also whether the applicants for licenses on the list then submitted had had their carriages examined, and the drivers had submitted the requisite certificates of character.

The license was then granted, and the understanding that the applicants before receiving their license should submit the necessary certificates.

Mr. Jenkins moved the appointment of Mr. Stubs, the Mayor, with a salary to the end of the year of £30 per annum.

On the suggestion of Mr. Hill, the list of applications for the situation of Inspector of Cabs, read over, and the following were recommended: Messrs. John McDermott, Clement S. Peate, R. Stubs, J. D. Nichols, J. McDermott, T. H. Hart, J. Jackson, W. E. Rogers, W. Thompson, and W. Hill.

Mr. Stubs moved, seconded by Mr. Hill, that the Council should proceed by ballot.

Admiral Wilschke opposed the course.

Mr. Hill was in favour of the course, but wished Mr. Stubs to have a higher salary.

Admiral Wilschke seconded, and Mr. Hill seconded, the vote of £40, which Mr. Hill supported.

The Mayor pointed out this motion must be withdrawn, as the appointment, by the standing orders, must precede the fixing of salary.

Mr. Wilschke, excepting the salary, and the circumstances of Mr. Stubs joining this office with the one which he now holds, would oppose a salary of £40.

Mr. Hill, if the Council would procure a respectable man who could be relied on.

Mr. Stubs, on the Mayor ruling that the appointment could be at present proceeded with, then moved that Mr. Stubs be appointed.

Admiral Wilschke and Mr. Jenkins seconded the motion, and the Council proceeded by ballot.

Mr. Stubs was elected.

On the motion of Mr. Brown, the several hackney carriage stands were about being fixed; but as it appeared no notice of it had been given, the business could not be proceeded with.

Mr. Stubs was about giving notice of a motion for the appointment of a special committee to enquire into and report on the expediency of reducing the present charge for water from the Corporation mains to the rate of one penny per gallon.

Admiral Wilschke moved, and Mr. T. Ryan seconded, an adjournment until three o'clock on Monday, which was carried.

AN AFFAIR WITH THE BATHS.—A person named Thomas Cox, a resident in London, brought before the Police Bench, charged by James Murray with wilful destruction of property. From the prosecutor's statement, it appeared that he, in company with an assistant of the name of Doyle, proceeded to the house occupied by the prisoner to execute a warrant for rent. As there was no one in the house on their arrival at it but a child, an entrance was easily gained, and the male, but shortly afterwards the defendant and his wife returned, both intoxicated. The former, who was armed with a knife, threatened the wife, who he owed no rent, and then took up an axe, and after breaking a table, an iron pot, and every article of furniture in the room, made him and Doyle, when the latter narrowly saved his life by projecting himself with a piece of wood from the table. Finally, Cox drove them from the house, and no sooner were they outside than he and his wife followed them, and collecting a mob composed of the residents of the alley they followed them to the door of the house, where a shower of stones, and which were accompanied with yellings and shouts of most opprobrious language. Doyle, the assistant, confirmed this testimony, and produced a receipt of the chair he saved himself from the "lick of the axe," as he termed it, the defendant made at him, and which, on being examined, clearly evidenced a blow having been struck, and his having had a narrow escape from a more serious injury. Cox, when called on for his defence, merely stated that he was perfectly innocent of the whole transaction, from the state of intoxication he was in at the time. The judge, however, this part of the evidence, and the fact that the defendant had not been placed at the bar on a different charge to that on which he was; and the bench were somewhat doubtful whether it ought to be disposed of in the usual manner, but, by ordering him to enter into a recognizance of £5 each, in and two securities of £5 each; or in default, three months imprisonment in the goal.

CONVICT LIST.—There was only one charge on this list on Thursday, that of a man named Harrison, who had been apprehended as a suspected runaway, and which, on enquiry at Hyde Park Barracks, was found to be a mistake. The man, who had had a ticket-of-fare for Yass, and believing that he had completed his sentence, he had proceeded to Sydney, but it now seemed that he had yet a month to serve in the colony.

COMMERCIAL INTELLIGENCE.

TRANSACTIONS. During the week have been very trifling, and only to supply immediate wants. The trade in general exceedingly cautious, and unwilling to come under fresh liabilities, merely keeping their stocks up for a retail trade, and which is now and will be for the next few months the principal portion of their business. Speculation does not exist—at least for a few days.

WINDSOR.
JUNE 15.—A MYSTERIOUS AFFAIR.—A few mornings ago, Mr. Arnold, of Windsor, was surprised to find that three of his housemaids were unable to move, and howling in such a way as to indicate they were suffering intensely, in which state they remained for about twelve hours, and then died. On the following morning two valuable milk cows were found dead on the farm, one near to the house, the other in the middle of a small lagoon or water-hole, with its carcass enormously swollen. Both animals had been milked on the previous evening, and appeared as sound as usual, and any cattle on the farm, so that the cause of their deaths seems to be wrapped in a degree of mystery. It is a pity Mr. Arnold did not send a medical man, in order to have them tested, for in all probability their deaths have been occasioned by the action of poison—most probably arsenic, from the circumstance of the dogs being at a great distance from the house, if strychnine had been used death would have been much more instantaneous. What tends to make the matter so mysterious is the fact of Mr. Arnold being one of the kindest and best of men, and a great deal of good, and whom it would be almost impossible to be so malicious; however, we trust some light will soon be thrown on the affair, and if any ruffians have been at work with poison, that they will be readily detected and brought to punishment.

PRESBYTERIAN BURIAL GROUND.—It is really a shame to see the neglected state in which this ground is allowed to remain, and the want of any kind of drainage, and the fact that there is nothing by which you can distinguish it from the surrounding bush, but the few graves with one or two painted enclosures. No fencing of any description is to be seen, and the state of the ground is such as to render it a disgrace to the community, and a source of great annoyance to the people. It is a pity that the ground is not better managed, and that the people are not more careful of it.
